

200 Series storage

Steelcase

When it comes to storage, one size does not fit all.

Built to last, these no-nonsense products are a value: simple, straight forward and functional.

In workstation storage for the things you need close at hand.

Group storage for those records you really need to keep.

Flat front or radius front for those well rounded personalities.

Fixed in place is fine, or how about mobile with a cushion.

The details set it apart.

Rollout and drawers or all rollouts.

One common top creates a stand up meeting surface.
